PREFACE.

THE service of song claims a very important place in all our devotional exercises. The Lord has in all ages encouraged his people to rejoice and sing praises to His holy name. In singing the soul gives expression of its devotion to God, and makes known its deep struggles and great needs. The service of song also leads to spiritual development and unity among the believers. Among the pleasures and joys of heaven will be the glorious song service of the redeemed: "And they sang a new song — saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing." In order to be prepared to join in the songs of the redeemed, our hearts and souls need to be set in tune by the hand that sets in tune every vocal and spiritual chord in all the universe. This is effected by following the divine instruction to "teach and admonish one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in our hearts unto the Lord."

In compiling the "Church and Sunday School Hymnal," the committees have endeavored to select and adopt only such hymns as tend to promote true devotion and a deeper work of grace in the hearts of all who engage in the service of song.

The hymns and songs selected cover a wide range of subject matter suitable for all occasions in religious worship, both in the church and home. All the best old hymns and tunes sung by our sainted fathers and mothers, and which have left their sacred memories and influence upon the present generation, have been retained; many newer hymns of unquestionable worth secured at considerable cost, also a number of valuable new hymns written especially for this work, constitute a collection of hymns and tunes peculiarly adapted to the needs of the various lines of church work.

Great care has been taken in selecting tunes to express the sentiment of the words, and such as are best suited to congregational singing. Care has also been exercised in classifying the hymns under heads appropriate for the various occasions of worship, and any class can be readily found by referring to the topical index.

The committees appointed to arrange and compile the new hymnal now submit to the church the result of their labors. The same is sent out with the fond hope that it will meet with the approval and acceptance of our beloved Brotherhood, and that it may unify our song service, young and old uniting their voices in song and prayer, worshipping the Lord our God "with the spirit and with the understanding also," — thus bringing us nearer to God, and preparing us all to sing the songs of Moses and the Lamb over Yonder.

EDITOR'S NOTES.

In submitting the present volume of Church and Sunday School music, we invite you to note in particular, five points.

1st. In the old, old songs which have been sung so often without books, it is easy to see how it is that we differ as to what is correct for even the same melody. In these cases we have endeavored to get the best setting of the songs, and now trust they may suit those who may wish to use the Hymnal. The harmony in many places has been changed — sometimes because it was poor and sometimes because it was incorrect. I feel that it would so much improve our Church Music if each congregation would adjust itself to, and adopt, the music as now set in Church and Sunday School Hymnal. Some songs are represented at a different pitch from what they were in the older books. This has been done either to suit the voices better, or to give the song a better effect. Leaders should use a tuning-fork to start the pieces at the correct pitch, or else practice at home until their judgment is true in this matter. (The safest and best plan is, to quietly use a fork at the time you wish to start a tune. This can be done without any display.)

2d. Not a few of the songs which were formerly written in half-notes, now appear in quarter-notes. This does not mean that they should be sung twice as fast. At this point I wish to urge very strongly that every leader should sing just as fast or slow, just as loud or soft, just as joyful or sad as the words suggest. Sing to express the words, that they may edify, and not to make a meaningless noise or jingle simply to gratify some inconsistent feeling.

3d. The songs which have a Refrain are not listed in the Metrical Index, nor are any of the songs that are not of a general hymn-tune character. Where hymns appear on a page which has music set to other words, no meter mark has been set to those separate words, for they are in every case of the same meter as the tune above, and are intended to be sung to that tune.

4th. The music which has been written especially for the book has been selected, after written, with the greatest care. It is of course untried. I trust it may receive very careful study and practice. That which proves good — well ; if any should be found not good, discard it.

5th. We have adapted the tunes to the hymns according to our best judgment and taste. Wherein this mating of hymns and tunes differs from that which leaders are used to, we sincerely trust that all will first use the songs as given in the Hymnal, and then if found that the tune and hymn do not suit together, the leader may make his own selection of tunes. But in selecting other tunes great care should be exercised, that the words may be strengthened and not weakened.

Since singing has such a tendency to fill us with praise and thanksgiving and adoration for our great Father, since others may be brought to the Light by our singing, since God has given us a voice — let us sing for the salvation of sinners, the edifying of saints, and the glory of God.

1. Oh, for a heart to praise my God, A heart from sin set free !
 2. A heart re-sig-ned, sub-mis-sive, meek, My dear Re-deem-er's throne ;
 3. A heart in ev-'ry thought re-newed, And full of love di-vine ;

 Which nei-ther life nor death can part From him that dwells with-in.

"In spirit and in truth." John 4: 23

- 1 Once more we come before our God,
 Once more his blessing ask.
 Oh, may not duty seem a load,
 Nor worship prove a task.
- 2 Father, thy quickening Spirit send
 On us in Jesus' name ;
 To make our waiting minds attend,
 And put our souls in frame.
- 3 May we receive the word we hear,
 Each in an honest heart ;
 Hoard up the precious treasure there,
 And never with it part.
- 4 To seek thee all our hearts dispose,
 To each thy blessings suit ;
 And let the seed thy servant sows,
 Produce abundant fruit.
- 5 The thirsty bless with heavenly show-
 The cold with warmth divine : [ers.
 And as the benefit is ours,

"My soul shall make her boast in the Lord." Ps. 34: 2

- 1 Long as I live I'll bless thy name,
 My King, my God, my love ;
 My work and joy shall be the same
 In the bright world above.
- 2 Great is the Lord ; his power unknown ;
 And let his praise be great ;
 I'll sing the honors of thy throne,
 Thy works of grace repeat.
- 3 Thy grace shall dwell upon my tongue,
 And while my lips rejoice,
 The men who hear my sacred song
 Shall join their cheerful voice.
- 4 Fathers to sons, shall teach thy name,
 And children learn thy ways ;
 Ages to come thy truth proclaim,
 And nations sound thy praise.
- 5 The world is governed by thy hand ;
 The saints are ruled by love ;
 And thine eternal kingdom stand,
 Though rocks, and hills remove.

1 Salvation! oh, the joyful sound,
 What pleasure to our ears!
 A sovereign balm for every wound,
 A cordial for our fears.

2 Buried in sorrow and in sin,
 On death's dark way we stray;
 But we arise by grace divine,
 To see a heavenly day.

3 Salvation! let the echo fly
 The spacious earth around:
 While all the armies of the sky
 Conspire to raise the sound!

4 Salvation! O thou bleeding Lamb,
 To thee the praise belongs;
 Salvation shall inspire our hearts,
 And dwell upon our tongues.

I3

1 Come, let us join our sacred songs,
 With angels round the throne;
 Ten thousand thousand are their
 But all their joys are one [tongues,

2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
 "To be exalted thus;"
 "Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply,
 "For he was slain for us."

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
 Honor and power divine;
 And blessings more than we can give,
 Be, Lord, forever thine.

4 Let all that dwell above the sky
 And air and earth and seas
 Conspire to raise thy glories high,
 And speak thine endless praise.

2 Here I raise my Ebenezer,
 Hither by thine help I'm come;
 And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
 Safely to arrive at home.
 Jesus sought me when a stranger,
 Wandering from the fold of God,
 He, to rescue me from danger,
 Interposed his precious blood.

3 Oh, to grace how great a debtor
 Daily I'm constrained to be!
 Let that grace, now, like a fetter,
 Bind my wandering heart to thee.
 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
 Prone to leave the God I love—
 Here's my heart, oh, take and seal it,
 Seal it from thy courts above.

15 "Behold what manner of love." 1 John 3: 1

1 Love divine, all love excelling,
 Joy of heaven, to earth come down!
 Fix in us thy humble dwelling;
 All thy faithful mercies crown.
 Jesus, thou art all compassion,
 Pure, unbounded love thou art;
 Visit us with thy salvation;
 Enter every trembling heart.

2 Breathe, oh, breathe thy loving Spirit
 Into every troubled breast!
 Let us all in thee inherit,
 Let us find that second rest.
 Take away our power of sinning;
 Alpha and Omega be;
 End of faith, as its beginning,
 Set our hearts at liberty.

16

1 Come, thou everlasting Spirit,
 Bring to every thankful mind
 All the Savior's dying merit,
 All his sufferings for mankind.
 True recorder of his passion,
 Now the living fire impart,
 Now reveal his great salvation,
 Preach his gospel to his heart.

2 Come, thou Witness of his dying,
 Come, Remembrancer divine,
 Let us feel thy power applying
 Christ to every soul and mine:
 Let us groan thine inward groaning,
 Look on him we pierc'd and griev'd,
 All receive the grace atoning,
 All the sprinkled blood receive.

1. So let our lives and lips ex-press The ho-ly gos-pel we pro-fess ;
2. Thus shall we best pro-claim a-broad The hon-or of our Sav-iour God ;
3. Our flesh and sense must be de-nied ; Pas-sion and en-vy, lust and pride ;
4. Re-lig-ion bears our spir-its up, While we ex-pect that bless-ed hope,
5. That sa-cred stream, thy ho-ly Word, That all our rag-ing fear con-trols :

So let our walks and vir-tues shine, To prove the doc-trine all di-vine.
 When the sal-vation reigns with-in, And grace sub-dues the pow'r of sin.
 While jus-tice, temp'rance, truth and love Our in-ward pi-e-ty ap-prove.
 The bright ap-pear-ance of the Lord, And faith stands leaning on his word.
 Sweet peace thy prom-is-es af-ford, And give new strength to faint-ing souls.

I8 "Everything that hath breath praise the Lord."

Psalm 150 : 6

- 1 From all that dwell below the skies,
 Let the Creator's praise arise ;
 Let the Redeemer's name be sung
 Through every land, by every tongue.
- 2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord,
 Eternal truth attends thy word ;
 Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
 Till suns shall rise and set no more.
- 3 Your lofty themes, ye mortals, bring, 3
 In songs of praise divinely sing ;
 The great salvation loud proclaim,
 And shout for joy the Saviour's name.
- 4 In every land begin the song,
 To every land the strains belong ;
 In cheerful sound all voices raise,
 And fill the world with loudest praise.

I9 "Bless the Lord, O my soul." Psalm 103 : 1

- 1 Bless, O my soul! the living God ;
 Call home thy thoughts that rove
 abroad :
 Let all the powers within me join
 In work and worship so divine.
- 2 Bless, O my soul! the God of grace ;
 His favors claim thy highest praise ;
 Why should the wonders he hath
 Be lost in silence, and forgot? [wrought
- 'Tis he, my soul, that sent his Son
 To die for crimes which thou hast done ;
 He owns the ransom, and forgives
 The hourly follies of our lives.
- 4 Let every land his power confess ;
 Let all the earth adore his grace :
 My heart and tongue with rapture join
 In work and worship so divine.

1 Now is th' accepted time,
 Now is the day of grace;
 Now, sinners, come, without delay,
 And seek the Saviour's face.

2 Now is th' accepted time,
 The Saviour calls to-day;
 To-morrow it may be too late,
 Then why should you delay?

3 Now is th' accepted time,
 The gospel bids you come;
 And every promise in his word
 Declares there yet is room.

4 Now is th' accepted time,
 O sinners! why delay?
 Come while the gospel trumpetsounds,
 Come in th' accepted day.

"To seek and to save." Luke 19: 10

1 Assist thy servant, Lord,
 The gospel to proclaim ;
 Let power and love attend thy word,
 And every breast inflame.

2 Bid unbelief depart ;
 With love his soul inflame ;
 Take full possession of his heart,
 And glorify thy name.

3 May stubborn sinners bend
 To thy divine control ;
 Constrain the wandering to attend,
 And make the wounded whole.

 Until thy glorious grace shall charm
 And harmonize the world.

"Watch and pray." Mark 14: 38

 A God to glorify ;
 A never-dying soul to save,
 And fit it for the sky.

2 To serve the present age,
 My calling to fulfil,—
 Oh, may it all my powers engage
 To do my Master's will.

3 Arm me with jealous care,
 As in thy sight to live ;
 And oh, thy servant, Lord, prepare
 A strict account to give.

4 Help me to watch and pray,

 Assured if I my trust betray,
 I shall forever die.

| 1 Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
Unuttered or expressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast. | 1 There is a name I love to hear;
I love to sing its worth;
It sounds like music in mine ear,
The sweetest name on earth. |
| 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear;
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near. | 2 It tells me of a Saviour's love,
Who died to set me free;
It tells me of his precious blood,
The sinner's perfect plea. |
| 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
The majesty on high. | 3 It tells of One whose loving heart
Can feel my smallest woe:
Who in each sorrow bears a part
That none can bear below. |
| 4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice
Returning from his ways,
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And say, "Behold, he prays!" | 4 Jesus! the name I love so well,
The name I love to hear!
No saint on earth its worth can tell,
No heart conceive how dear. |
| 5 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gate of death—
He enters heaven with prayer. | 5 This name shall shed its fragrance still
Along this thorny road;
Shall sweetly smooth the rugged hill
That leads me up to God. |

Let thy grace, Lord, make me lowly,
 Humble all my swelling pride;
 Fallen, guilty, and unholy,
 Greatness from mine eyes I'll hide:
 I'll forbid my vain aspiring,
 Nor at early honors aim,
 No ambitious heights desiring,
 Far above my humble claim.

2 Weaned from earth's delusive pleasures,
 In thy love I'll seek for mine:
 Placed in heav'n my nobler treasures,
 Earth I quietly resign:
 Thus the transient world despising,
 On the Lord my hopes rely;
 Thus my joys from him arising,
 Like himself shall never die.

 In this dark world with light divine.
 Reveal, O Lord, thy saving plan,
 To all the families of man ;
 Let distant nations hear thy word,
 Let all the nations praise the Lord.
- 2 Let them with joy thy praises sing,
 Earth's righteous Judge and sovereign
 King ;
 Illumined by thy holy word,
 Let all the nations praise the Lord.
 Then shall this barren world assume
 New beauty, and the desert bloom ;
 Our God shall richly bless us then,
 And all men praise his name. Amen.

1. Fa-ther! in my life's young morning, May thy word di-rect my way;

 3. Fa-ther! let me nev-er cov-et Things of van-i-ty and pride;

Let me heed each gra-cious warn-ing, Lest my feet should go a-stray;
 Ev-'ry day thy grace be-seech-ing, Let thy lov-ing kind-ness shine;
 Teach me truth, and may I love it Bet-ter than all else be-side.

Make me will-ing, make me will-ing, All its pre-cepts to o-bey;
 Al-ways on me, al-ways on me, And my heart be whol-ly thine.
 Bless-ed Bi-ble! bless-ed Bi-ble! May it be my heavenward guide.

- 1 Soon falls the evening twilight,
 Fast fades the light away,
 And O, thou toiling pilgrim,
 How didst thou spend thy day?
 Art thou oppressed and weary,
 And sigh for quiet rest—
 And long to be with Jesus,
 At home among the blest?
- 2 Or hast thou vainly struggled
 To gain the world's applause,
 For honor, fame, or riches,
 Which Christians count but loss?
 And heeded not, that evening
 So quickly draweth nigh,
 And that the precious moments
 Are swiftly passing by?
- 3 This world is not our mansion,
 We seek a home more dear—
 The golden, heavenly city,
 Where we shall know no fear.
 There naught shall mar our pleasures,
 Nor cause one moment's woe,
 But sweet angelic music
 In strains unceasing flow.
- 4 O come then, weary pilgrim,
 Join in the happy band
 And seek the heavenly Canaan,
 The glorious Beulah land.
 The evening now approaches,
 Our labors soon will cease,
 And we shall meet up yonder,
 And dwell with Christ in peace.

Lead Me, Saviour

F. M. DAVIS

Arranged from F. M. DAVIS, by A. J. S.

With expression.

1. Sav-iour, lead me lest I stray, lest I stray, Gen - tly lead me all the way, all the way;
2. Thou the ref-uge of my soul, of my soul, When life's stormy bil-lows roll, billows roll;
3. Sav-iour, lead me then at last, then at last, When the storm of life is past, life is past,

1. Sav-iour, lead me, lead me lest I stray, Gen-tly lead me, lead me all the way;
2. Thou the ref-uge, ref-uge of my soul, When life's storm-y, stormy billows roll;
3. Sav-iour, lead me, lead me then at last, When the storm, the storm of life is past,

I am safe when by thy side, by thy side. I would in thy love a-bide, love a-bide.
 I am safe when thou art nigh, thou art nigh, All my hopes on thee re-ly, thee re-ly.
 To the land of endless day, endless day, Where all tears are wiped a-way, wiped a-way.

I am safe, am safe when by thy side. I would in, would in thy love a-bide.
 I am safe, am safe when thou art nigh, All my hopes, my hopes on thee re-ly.
 To the land, the land of end-less day, Where all tears, all tears are wiped away.

REFRAIN.

Lead me, lead me. Sav - iour, lead me lest I stray, . . .
 Sav - iour, lead me lest I stray, lest I stray,

 Gently down the stream of time, stream of time.

| 1 Jesus, while our hearts are bleeding
O'er the spoils that death has won,
We would, at this solemn meeting,
Calmly say, "Thy will be done." | 1 Brother, thou hast left us lonely,
Sorrow fills our hearts to-day ;
But beyond this vale of sorrow
Tears will all be wiped away. |
| 2 Tho' cast down, we're not forsaken ;
Though afflicted, not alone :
Thou didst give, and thou hast taken :
Blessed Lord, "Thy will be done." | 2 Brother, thou art sweetly resting,
Cold may be this earthly tomb,
But the angels sweetly whispered,
"Come and live with us at home." |
| 3 Tho' to-day we're filled with mourning,
Mercy still is on the throne ;
With thy smiles of love returning,
We can sing "Thy will be done." | 3 Brother, thou art sweetly resting
On the lovely Saviour's breast,
Where the wicked cease from troubling,
And the weary are at rest. |
| 4 By thy hands the boon was given ;
Thou hast taken but thine own :
Lord of earth, and God of heaven,
Evermore, "Thy will be done." | 4 Brother, thou art sweetly resting,
Here thy toils and cares are o'er ;
Pain and sickness, death and sorrow,
Never can distress thee more. |

1. Come, lost one, your Sav-iour is call - ing, He's plead-ing with ten - der-est voice ;
2. Come with all thy guilt and pol - lu - tion, And call on the name of the Lord ;
3. Thy sins tho' they be red like crim-son, Yea, tho' they be ma - ny and great,

Come out from your ways of transgres-sion, And has - ten to make him your choice.
 He's rea - dy to cleanse and to bless you, And save by his life - giv-ing word.
 Shall be blot-ted out by your Sav - iour, If ye come to him ere too late.
 Then come and par-take of his boun - ty, And trust him for grace ev - er-more.

 Watching o'er your flocks by night,
 God with man is now residing;
 Yonder shines the heavenly light:
 ¶: Come and worship—
 Worship Christ, the new-born King.:||

3 Saints! before the altar bending,
 Watching long in hope and fear,
 Suddenly the Lord, descending,
 In his temple shall appear:
 ¶: Come and worship—
 Worship Christ, the new-born King.:||

4 Sinners! wrung with true repentance,
 Doomed for guilt to endless pains:
 Justice now revokes the sentence,
 Mercy calls you, break your chains:

1. In mer-cy, Lord, re-mem-ber me Thro' all the hours of night,
 2. With cheer-ful heart I close my eyes, Since thou wilt not re-move:
 3. Or if this night should prove the last, And end my tran-sient days,

 Oh, in the morn-ing let me rise Re-joic-ing in thy love.
 Then take me to thy prom-ised rest, Where I may sing thy praise.

- 1 Stand up ! stand up for Jesus !
 Ye soldiers of the cross ;
 Lift high his royal banner,
 It must not suffer loss ;
 From victory unto victory
 His army he shall lead,
 Till every foe is vanquished,
 And Christ is Lord indeed.
- 2 Stand up ! stand up for Jesus !
 Stand in his strength alone ;
 The arm of flesh will fail you —
 Ye dare not trust your own ;
 Put on the gospel armor,
 And, watching unto prayer,
 Where duty calls, or danger,
 Be never wanting there.
- 3 Stand up ! stand up for Jesus !
 The strife will not be long ;
 This day the noise of battle,
 The next the victor's song ;
 To him that overcometh,
 A crown of life shall be ;
 He with the King of Glory
 Shall reign eternally.

Psalm 91: 9, 10

- 1 In heavenly love abiding,
 No change my heart shall fear,
 And safe is such confiding,
 For nothing changes here :
 The storm may roar without me ;
 My heart may low be laid,
 But God is round about me,
 And can I be dismayed ?
- 2 Wherever he may guide me,
 No want shall turn me back ;
 My Shepherd is beside me,
 And nothing can I lack ;
 His wisdom ever waketh,
 His sight is never dim :
 He knows the way he taketh,
 And I will walk with him.
- 3 Green pastures are before me,
 Which yet I have not seen ;
 Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
 Where darkest clouds have been :
 My hope I cannot measure ;
 My path to life is free :
 My Saviour has my treasure,
 And he will walk with me.

2 Other refuge have I none,
Hangs my helpless soul on thee ;
Leave, oh, leave me not alone !
Still support and comfort me :
All my trust on thee is stayed,
All my help from thee I bring ;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want ;
All I need in thee I find ;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is thy name,
I am all unrighteousness ;
False and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

4 Plenteous grace with thee is found,
Grace to pardon all my sins :
Let the healing streams abound ;
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the Fountain art,
Freely let me take of thee ;
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

1 Mary to the Saviour's tomb
Hasted at the early dawn ;
Spice she brought and rich perfume,
But the Lord she loved was gone.
For a while she lingering stood,
Filled with sorrow and surprise,
Trembling, while a crystal flood
Issued from her weeping eyes.

2 But her sorrows quickly fled
When she heard her Saviour's voice ;
Christ has risen from the dead,
Now he bids her heart rejoice.
What a change his word can make,
Turning darkness into day !
You who weep for Jesus' sake,
He will wipe your tears away.

3 He who came to comfort her,
When she thought her all was lost,
Will for your relief appear.
Though you now are tempest-tossed,
On his word your burden cast ;
On his love your thoughts employ ;
Weeping for a night may last,
But the morning bringeth joy.

 2. Where is the bless - ed - ness I knew When first I saw the Lord?

Go work in my vineyard. Matt. 21: 28

- 1 Hark the voice of Jesus crying — 2 Let none hear you idly saying,
 “Who will go and work to-day ?” “There is nothing I can do,”
 Fields are white and harvest waiting : While the souls of men are dying,
 Who will bear the sheaves away ?” And the Master calls for you.
 Loud and strong the Master calleth, Take the task he gives you gladly ;
 Rich reward he offers thee : Let his work your pleasure be :
 Who will answer, gladly saying, Answer quickly when he calleth,
 “Here am I ; send me, send me.” “Here am I ; send me, send me.”

 Bro-ken vows and dis-ap-pointments Thick-ly sprin-kled all the way,
 There's no thirst-ing for life's pleas-ures, Nor a-dorn-ing, rich and gay,

 For his redeeming grace.
- 2 Preserved by power divine
 To full salvation here,
 Again in Jesus' praise we join
 And in his sight appear.
- 3 What troubles have we seen ;
 What conflicts have we passed ;
 Fightings without and fears within,
 Since we assembled last.
- 4 But out of all, the Lord
 Hath brought us by his love ;
 And still he doth his help afford,
 And hides our life above.
- 5 Let us take up the cross
 Till we the crown obtain,
 And gladly reckon all things loss,
 So we may Jesus gain.

One body in Christ. Rom. 12: 5

- 1 And let our bodies part,
 To different climes repair,—
 Inseparably joined in heart
 The friends of Jesus are.
- 2 Jesus, the Corner-stone,
 Did first our hearts unite,
 And still he keeps our spirits one,
 Who walk with him in white.
- 3 The vineyard of their Lord
 Before his laborers lies ;
 And lo ! we see the vast reward
 Reserved in paradise.
- 4 There all our toils are o'er,
 Our suffering and our pain :—
 Who meet on that eternal shore,
 Shall never part again.
- 5 To gather home his own
 God shall his angels send,
 And bid our bliss on earth begun,
 In deathless triumph end.

1. "We've no a-bid-ing cit-y here," This may dis-tress the world-ly mind;
 2. "We've no a-bid-ing cit-y here," Sad truth, were this to be our home;
 3. "We've no a-bid-ing cit-y here," Then let us live as pil-grims do;
 4. "We've no a-bid-ing cit-y here," We seek a cit-y out of sight;

But should not cost the saint a tear, Who hopes a bet-ter rest to find.
 But let this tho't our spir-its cheer, "We seek a cit-y yet to come."
 Let not the world our rest ap-pear, But let us haste from all be-low.

He taught us to re - frain from strife, And showed us how in love to live.
 To pray in spir - it, faith pos-sessed, And his for - giv - ing love to seek.
 He gave command to sheathe the blade : Nor need - ed he such arm as this.

No bit - ter tone, no an - gry blow, No weap-on save his pre-cious word ;

 All lamb-like to the slaugh-ter led, While nails and spear his life-blood drew.

Your friendship's like a draw - ing band, Yet we must take the part - ing hand.
How loath I've been to leave the place Where Je - sus shows his suil - ing face.
In sweet sub - mis - sion all in one, We'll say, "Our Fa - ther's will be done."
Your hearts with love have seemed to flame, Which makes me hope we'll meet a - gain.

Your pres - ence sweet, your un - ion dear, Your words de - light - ful to my ear ;
Oh, could I stay with friends so kind, How would it cheer my strug - gling mind !
Dear fel - low - youth in chris - tian ties, Who seek for man - sions in the skies,
Ye mourn - ing souls, in sad sur - prise, Je - sus re - mem - bers all your cries ;

And when I see that we must part, You draw like chords a - round my heart.
But du - ty makes me un - der - stand That we must take the part - ing hand.
Fight on, you'll win the hap - py shore, Where part - ing hands are known no more.
Oh, taste his grace, in all that land We'll no more take the part - ing hand.

"Pray for one another." James 5: 16

1. Praise God from whom all blessings flow, Praise him all creatures here below,
Praise him above, ye heav'nly host, Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

2 Ye nations round the earth rejoice
Before the Lord your Sovereign King;
Serve him with cheerful heart and voice;
With all your tongues his glory sing.

3 The Lord is God: 'Tis he alone
Doth life, and breath, and being give:
We are his work, and not our own;
The sheep that on his pasture live.

411 "The Lord shall command the blessing." Deut. 28: 8

1 Dismiss us with thy blessing, Lord—
Help us to feed upon thy word;
All that has been amiss forgive,
And let thy truth within us live.

2 Though we are guilty, thou art good—
Wash all our works in Jesus' blood;
Give every fettered soul release,
And bid us all depart in peace.
